The Kansas Election.

INDEPENDENCE, (Mo.) April 1 .- Returns from Kansas show the election of the proslavery ticket. The election was conducted in a quiet manner. The editor of the Kansas Free State was ducked in Kew river by a Cumberland Coal & Iron Co'y. mob, in consequence of a speech made by him. There is probably no anti-slavery men sected to the Legislature. A large procesion paraded here to celebrate the victory.

In Alexandria, on Monday afternoon, the 2nd April. THOMAS JACOBS, in the eightyfourth year of his age. He retained to the last his mental powers, and died in the blessed hope of a glorious immortality, through the merits of his Saviour. His life was worthy of the imitation of all. He was blameless in his walk and conversation, mild yet firm, full of love and affection for his fellow men, and ever anxious to do good to all. He was a member of he Methodist Protestant Church, and adorned he doctrine which he cherished and exemplified. la this community he was universally esteemed. One of our oldest citizens, he has mingled in all the fortunes of our city, and seen it in all its stages of depression and progression. His reing to his young triends, who never failed to receive instruction from his lips. He has not left an enemy, it is believed, and all lament his death -whilst we believe that the just and upright man has gone to receive his reward in heaven. The remains of the deceased will be removed this day at 1 o'clock to the Methodist Protestant Church, where a funeral discourse will be delivered. The funeral will proceed from the Church to the burial ground. The citizens genrally are respectfully invited to attend.

LALEGANT VELVET CARPETINGS TO BE SOLD AT COST.—CLAGETT. DODSON & CO., respectfully call the attention of persons intending to furnish their drawing rooms, saloons, parlors, or other rooms to this announcement. They have determined for a time to sell off their stock of superior and beautiful Royal Velvet CARPETING, at prime cost for the cash.

As these GOODS were purchased by us at a ruinous sacrifice to the consignees and importers, prices which are believed to be less than TONE & HART-WHOLESALE AND the cost of manufacturing, housekeepers now have an opportunity of supplying themselves with the most elegant CARPETS at a price less
